FOREWORD

THIS reprint of the Marriage Registration Ordinance incorporates all amendments made up to 31st December, 1987. It is, however, not a Statutory reprint. It is issued to keep the public informed of changes and for their convenience.

I must express my gratitude to the Legal Draftsman, Mr. N. J. Abeysekera, for having made available the services of Mr. I. A. W. Perera, Publications Assistant, for incorporating the amendments and reading the proofs.

S. WEERASINGHE, Registrar-General.

^{*}To be filled up only when entering a marriage solemnized by or in the presence of a minister.

the Registrar-General as in section 37 provided. The third copy shall bear an endorsement under the hand of the District Registrar to the effect that it is issued under section 35A.

(7) No minister shall be compelled to solemnize a marriage between persons either of whom shall not be a member of the church, denomination, or body to which such minister belongs, nor otherwise than according to the rules, customs, rites, and ceremonies of such church, denomination, or body.

[$ 49, 11 of 1968.]

(8) A Minister shall refuse to solemnize a marriage until the parties thereto have paid to him, for transmission to the District Registrar, the fee payable to such Registrar for the registration of the marriage.

Solemnization of marriage by registrar.

- 35. (1) A marriage in the presence of the registrar shall, except as hereinafter provided, be solemnized between the parties at his office or station with open doors, and between the hours of six o'clock in the morning and six o'clock in the afternoon, and in the presence of two or more respectable witnesses, and in the following manner:—
- (2) The registrar shall address the parties to the following effect:

"Be it known unto you, A.B. and C.D., that by the public reception of each other as man and wife in my presence, and the subsequent attestation thereof by signing your name to that effect in the registry book, you become legally married to each other, although no other rite of a civil or religious nature shall take place; and know ye further that the marriage now intended to be contracted cannot be dissolved during your lifetime except by a valid judgment of divorce, and that if either of you before the death of the other shall contract another marriage before the former marriage is thus legally dissolved you will be guilty of bigamy and be liable to the penalties attached to that offence".

- (3) Within twenty-four hours of such solemnization the minister shall send to the District Registrar the duplicate of such entry and certificate.
- [§ 11, 84 of 1946.]
- (4) The District Registrar shall, upon receipt of such duplicate and certificate, forward an acknowledgment of the same to the minister, and shall cause a copy of the same to be posted for twenty-one days in a conspicuous place in his own office and in the office of the registrar within whose division the marriage was solemnized.
- (5) On the expiry of twenty-one days from the date of the first posting of the copy as aforesaid by the District Registrar, he shall enter the marriage in the marriage register book kept by him under section 34:

Provided that no caveat shall have been lodged or other proceedings taken by way of prohibition under sections 29 and 30, and on the registration of such marriage it shall be deemed to be valid and effectual for all purposes as if the same had been solemnized by or in the presence of the minister upon a certificate issued by the proper registrar and the requirements of section 34, subsections (2), (3), (4), (5) and (6), had been complied with.

- (6) In the event of any caveat being entered or proceedings being taken by way of prohibition under sections 29 and 30, the District Registrar shall not register the marriage till the order of the Family Court or of the Court of Appeal is made under section 31.
- 41. (1) The entry made by the registrar in his marriage register book under sections 34, 35, and 40 shall constitute the registration of the marriage, and shall be the best evidence thereof before all courts and in all proceedings in which it may be necessary to give evidence of the marriage.
- (2) The copy substituted under section 37 (2) for the lost duplicate entry of a registrar shall for the purposes of this section be deemed an original entry made by the registrar.

(3) Upon application by one of the parties to the proposed marriage or by the minister by or before whom it is intended to be solemnized to the District Registrar within whose district the marriage is to be solemnized, the District Registrar may issue a licence to the minister for the solemnization of the marriage at such place and at such hour as the parties may prefer:

Provided that in every other respect the requirements of this Ordinance shall be fully complied with, and provided further that the requirements of section 34, subsections (2), (3), (4), (5) and (6), shall apply to marriages solemnized hereunder.

New notice required after three months.

39. Whenever a marriage shall not be had within three months, except as provided in section 31 (5), after the notice thereof shall have been entered by the registrar, or, if notices have been given to and entered by two registrars, after the earlier notice shall have been entered, the notice and any licence or certificate which may have been granted thereupon, and all other proceedings thereupon, shall be utterly void; and no such marriage shall be solemnized or registered until new notice shall have been given and certificate thereof issued in the prescribed manner.

Death-bed marriages.

40. (1) It shall be competent for a minister to solemnize without the preliminaries required by this Ordinance, at any convenient place, a marriage between parties of whom one is believed to be on the point of death:

Provided that such person is of sound mind, memory, and understanding.

(2) The minister shall immediately enter a statement of the particulars of the marriage in the book and in the manner prescribed by section 34, and shall at the foot of such entry, which shall be made in duplicate, make a certificate signed by himself and the witnesses to the solemnization, which certificate shall be substantially to this effect—

"We certify that A.B., one of the parties to the above marriage, is to the best of our knowledge and belief at the point of death, but of sound mind, memory, and understanding".

(3) Each of the parties shall then make in the presence of the registrar and witness the following declaration:—

"I do solemnly declare that I know not of any lawful impediment why I, A. B., may not be joined in matrimony to C.D., here present", and each party shall say to the other:

"I call upon all persons here present to witness that I, A.B., do take the C.D., to be my lawful wedded wife (or husband)".

- (4) If either of the parties be deaf or dumb as well as unable to write, the declartion and statement shall be interpreted to him or her, and his or her assent obtained by whatever means of communication are commonly used by him or her, and the registrar shall take special care to satisfy himself that the party understands, assents to, and adopts the declaration and statement.
- (5) The registrar shall then enter in triplicate, that is to say, the original, the second copy (hereinafter referred to as the "duplicate") and a third copy, a statement of the particulars of the marriage in his marriage register book in the form M in the First Schedule, and shall cause the entry to be signed by the parties and witnessess, and himself sign it in the manner prescribed in regard to a marriage solemnized by a minister. The third copy shall pear an endorsement under the hand of the registrar to the affect that it is issued under section 35A.
 - (6) Every such entry shall be numbered consecutively.
- 35A. The third copy referred to in the preceding section shall forthwith, free of charge, be delivered or transmitted by post to the female party to the marriage by the District Registrar or the registrar.

36. (1) Where a minister of any Christian church or persuasion reads or celebrates in a registered place of worship any marriage service or ceremony at the request of the parties to any marriage which has previously been solemnized by a registrar, such reading or celebration shall not—

 (a) be deemed to supersede or to affect in any way the marriage previously solemnized as aforesaid; or Copy of registration entry to be issued free. [§ 5, 41 of 1975.]

entries.

(2) Where a duplicate of an entry in a marriage register made under section 34 or section 35 or section 40 is lost, damaged, has become illegible or is in danger of becoming illegible, the Registrar-General may, after such inquiry as he may consider necessary, cause such duplicate to be replaced by a copy of the original entry, certified by the District Registrar or, if the original entry is in the custody of the registrar or the minister, certified by such minister or registrar, as the case may be, and countersigned by the District Registrar after verification of the copy with the original, and shall cause such copy to be filed and preserved. Every copy so filed and preserved shall, for all purposes, be deemed to be a duplicate duly filed and preserved in the office of the Registrar-General, under subsection (1).

(§ 5, 41 of 1975.)

(3) Where an original of an entry in a marriage register made under section 34 or section 35 or section 40 is lost, damaged, has become illegible or is in danger or becoming illegible and the duplicate is available, the Registrar-General may, after such inquiry as he may consider necessary, cause to be substituted therefor a copy of the duplicate certified by him to have been made after verification with the duplicate and to be a true copy of the duplicate.

Such copy shall replace the aforesaid original of the registration entry and shall, for all purposes, be deemed to be the original of the registration entry which was lost damaged, had become illegible or was in danger of becoming illegible, as the case may be.

(4) Where both the original and the duplicate of an entry in a marriage register made under section 34 or section 35 or section 40 are lost, damaged, have become illegible or are in danger of becoming illegible, the provisions of section 13 of the Births and Deaths Registration relation to the substitution of copies of such original and Act shall mutatis mutandis, apply to and in duplicate. Such copies shall, for all purposes, be deemed to be the original of the marriage registration entry and the duplicate, respectively.

38. (1) In case the female party to an intended marriage belongs to a class of people to whose customs it is contrary to require their females to appear in public before wedlock, it shall be lawful for the District Registar, if he is satisfied after such inquiry as he may deem necessary that such female party has at all times observed and continues to observe the customs of that class with regard to such appearance in public, to issue a licence empowering a registrar to solemnize the marriage at such place and hour as the parties may prefer, and as may be named in the licence :
